The City of Mt. Shasta, nestled at the foot of imposing 14,179-foot Mount Shasta (4,322m), is surrounded by natural beauty and offers many year-round outdoor activities. The mountain is the second highest volcano in the Cascade Range and has been a prominent landmark along the historic Siskiyou Trail – the track of an ancient trade and travel route of Native American footpaths between California’s Central Valley and the Pacific Northwest. Today’s version of the Siskiyou Trail is Interstate 5, which provides easy access to the City of Mt. Shasta, located midway between San Francisco and Portland, Oregon. Come see for yourself all Mt. Shasta has to offer. Or visit us on the web at www.VisitMtShasta.com.

MOUNT SHASTA’S SCENIC DRIVE
Everitt Memorial Highway is a year-round gateway to recreation and sightseeing on the slopes of Mount Shasta. Traveling up the highway which begins in Mt. Shasta City, you will pass through conifer forests, and see the site of a huge mudslide which ripped out ancient trees and sent boulders tumbling down the slopes. While at the Everitt Vista Point enjoy panoramic views of the Eddys, the Sacramento River canyon and even Mt. Lassen. When at Sand Flat, walk or cross-country ski through a climax Red Fir forest, and feed birds so tame they will eat from your outstretched hand. In the winter, park and play in the snow at Bunny Flat, the trailhead for the most popular route to the summit. During the short, high altitude summer season, walk with care through the delicate beauty of alpine vegetation in Panther Meadow. Drive to the 8,000-foot level and experience the stark and barren beauty above tree line. Public restrooms are available at McBride Springs campground, Everitt Vista Turnout, and Bunny Flat. U.S. Forest Service, 204 W. Alma, Mt. Shasta, (530) 926-4511.

MOUNTAIN CLIMBING
Test your physical abilities and determination by climbing the second highest volcano in the Cascades — Mount Shasta. This impressive mountain rises 14,179 feet above sea level. Many mountaineers believe that altitude is one of the biggest challenges when summiting the Mountain. The best time of year to climb Mount Shasta is from June through October. Guide services are available (see listings herein).

BOX CANYON DAM AND TRAIL
Stand 209 feet above a jagged river gorge and view the Sacramento River rush from Lake Siskiyou. On the way to Lake Siskiyou you’ll pass over Box Canyon Dam, where you may park off the road on either side of the dam for an awesome view. Walk the beautiful Box Canyon trail that begins just north of the gorge. This three-quarter-mile trail skirts the north rim of the dam, winds through dense forests, crosses a number of tiny mountain creeks and offers opportunities to view the dam and canyon from a number of different vantage points. Prepare yourself for some surprises along the way, some dating back to the early part of this century!

WAGON CREEK BRIDGE AND LAKE SISKIYOU TRAIL
This beautiful 260’ bridge connects two trail sections on the eastern end of Lake Siskiyou at the mouth of Wagon Creek on North Shore Road. Hikers, runners, horseback riders and bicyclists can enjoy a 7.6 mile pleasant and scenic trail that snakes along the lake.

FISHING - PUBLIC ACCESS
Stream and lake fishermen can find diverse free public fishing accesses throughout southern Siskiyou County. Lake Siskiyou is surrounded by public land, so access to its shoreline is easy and great scenic views can be found everywhere. Public lands along the shoreline of the McCloud Reservoir, south of the town of McCloud, are found near the boat ramp and on either side of the dam. Medicine Lake, 60 miles east of Mount Shasta, is accessible from the beach area and from the Forest Service campground. Smaller fishable public lakes include Toad, Gumboot, Mumbo, Castle and the small lakes in the Shasta State Wildlife Refuge east of Montague. Small boats on trailers can be launched down ramps at Medicine, McCloud, and Siskiyou Lakes. Stream fishermen will find public access on the McCloud River at two places: around the falls area at Fowlers Campground, and downstream from McCloud Reservoir (between the dam and Nature Conservancy land). The best – world famous – fishing (catch and release) on the Sacramento River is below the Box Canyon Dam, from Cantara all the way downstream past Dunsmuir. Detailed information regarding stream and lake fishing may be obtained by contacting the Visitors Bureau.
LAKE SISKIYOU
The newest lake in Northern California is the only one constructed solely for the enjoyment of boaters, fishermen, swimmers, campers (RV and tents), hikers and scenery lovers. Its constant-level, 430-acre surface reflects the 14,179-foot Mount Shasta to the northeast. Cold, clear mountain water from the nearby Mt. Eddy watershed is ideal habitat for the finest trout in western waters. Lake Siskiyou is located 2.5 miles southwest of the City of Mt. Shasta, off Interstate 5. Lake Siskiyou Camp Resort, (530) 926-2618.

CASTLE LAKE
Picturesque, crystal-clear Castle Lake is one of the most studied lakes in the United States. During the summer, walk around the west side of the lake to see the station where U.C. Davis scientists come to collect and study water and insect samples. In midsummer enjoy the spectacular colors and fragrance of the wildflowers which bloom at water’s edge.

MT. SHASTA FISH HATCHERY
Tour the oldest operating hatchery west of the Mississippi. Large, open ponds hold rainbow and brown trout raised to stock mountain fishing streams, rivers and lakes. Feed trout from handy fish-food dispensers. In early spring after the tiny eggs have hatched, see over three million fry being cared for in special tanks until they are large enough to be moved outside to the ponds.

MT. SHASTA CITY PARK AND THE HEADWATERS OF THE SACRAMENTO RIVER
Mt. Shasta City Park is the site of the headwaters of California’s powerful Sacramento River. Even in the driest years, clear, icy water rushes from the hillside feeding a picturesque pond area. Walk along the creek and follow footpaths that meander across small bridges, through hedges of horsetail, fern, and fragrant willow. The 26-acre public park is located off of N. Mt. Shasta Blvd. on Nixon Road. The barbecues, picnic tables and playgrounds make it a wonderful spot for a family outing. Free public restrooms and large, grassy lawns welcome the traveler. Mt. Shasta Parks & Recreation, City Park, (530) 926-2494. www.msrec.org

MT. SHASTA SISSON MUSEUM
Visit the museum to view permanent exhibits featuring the history of the area and Native American basketry. Changing exhibits displaying beautiful lenticular clouds, community stories, and art shows are also here to enjoy. There are activities for kids, opportunities to get your photo taken on a 1915 fire truck, and a fascinating 3-D map of the area and the mountain. The museum store features books, jewelry, toys, and much more. The museum is closed from January to March. Go to the website www.mtshastamuseum.com for more information.
OUTDOOR SKATING RINK
Siskiyou Skating Rink is located in Shastice Park, in the City of Mt. Shasta. The rink is 85 feet wide by 200 feet long – making it the only National Hockey League regulation-sized outdoor rink in California. Skating in an open-air rink is a thrill, especially with the magnificent Mt. Shasta scenery surrounding you! The Rink is an outdoor facility so come ready to skate, restrooms are available nearby and a variety of music is played during most hours of operation. The Rink is open seasonally, so call in advance, ice skating from mid to late November to February. Roller skating begins in April. For more information regarding hours, skate rentals and prices contact the Mt Shasta Parks and Recreation Department at (530)926-2494 or (530)926-1702.

SISSON MEADOW
Be sure to walk through Sisson Meadow, located in the heart of Mt. Shasta. This restored 7.5-acre wetland has boardwalks and benches for enjoying the incredible views of Mount Shasta, the Eddy Mountains and Castle Crags in the distance. Make use of the Mt. Shasta Audubon birding tour checklist and poster at the kiosk, check out the pond for seasonal birds, or take lunch at the picnic tables. Located 3 blocks from downtown on Castle Street. For more about Sisson Meadow and Siskiyou Land Trust, visit www.siskiyoulandtrust.org.

Surrounding areas: Ask at the Mt. Shasta Visitors Bureau (open seven days a week) for directions to the many other attractions in Siskiyou County.

DUNSMUIR BOTANICAL GARDENS
The Botanical Gardens is located in the heart of the Dunsmuir City Park in far northern California, encompassing about ten acres of a hilly, wooded area with a meadow, a playground area, and picnic sites bordering the beautiful Upper Sacramento River. Unique to this area are many Shasta lilies growing on the hillsides and the beautiful, fragrant native azaleas that grow along the river. In addition to the many beautiful native species, a variety of other perennial plants and shrubs have been introduced. These include rhododendrons, hostas, ferns and Japanese maples. During the spring and summer, various annuals greet visitors with a rainbow of colors.

STEWART MINERAL SPRINGS
Tucked away in a forested canyon North of Mt. Shasta, Stewart Mineral Springs offers a unique environment of sacred mineral waters with healing day-use baths, dry wood sauna, cold river plunges, massages, healing retreats, camping, lodging and weekly sweat lodges.
